For this Article, it is declared that:

1. It is Author(s) own original work, has not been submitted/and will be not published elsewhere, in the same or substantially the same form without acknowledging prior publication in the FCAA journal. All authors contributed equally to the results and preparation of this work. The authors declare to have no conflict of interest and to follow all ethical standards as adopted by the Publisher.
2. The Author(s) agree(s) to transfer the Copyright of this Article in the journal FCAA (Fractional Calculus and Applied Analysis) to “Diogenes Co., Ltd.” as Owner of the Journal, via the Editor-in-Chief, and to grant the Publisher “Springer Nature, Switzerland AG” the license to publish and distribute this article in this journal in any and all forms of actual or future media.
3. The Authors retain the following rights: - all proprietary rights related to the article, other than copyright, such as patent rights; - the right to use the substance of the article in future own works, including lectures and books; - the right to reproduce this article for own purposes, provided the copies are not offered for sale.
4. The Authors may self-archive an author-created version of the accepted manuscript on their own websites or their institutional repository. The embargo period for journal articles under Springer is 12 months: the Authors may deposit this version of the article in any repository, provided it is only made publicly available 12 months after official publication or later. They may not use the publisher’s version (the final article), which is posted on SpringerLink and other Springer websites, for the purpose of self-archiving or deposit. Furthermore, the Authors may only post their version provided acknowledgement is given to the original source of publication (the journal “Fract. Calc. Appl. Anal.”, Vol. / No. / Year / pp. / DOI) and a link is inserted to the published article on Springer’s website, with a sentence as: “The final publication is available at Springer via”.
5. In case of Open Choice articles the transfer of copyright is not required as the copyright then remains with the author(s). In opting for open access, the author(s) agree to publish the article under the Creative Commons Attribution License (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>).
6. The Corresponding Author warrants that he/she has the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to grant the rights granted in this Agreement. All the Authors of this work authorize the Corresponding Author to sign this Agreement on their behalf.
