Резюме. The author of this presentation was educated and have spent more than 15 years in Lomonosov Moscow State University (MSU), in the Interfaculty Laboratory of Statistical Methods, created and led by the great A. N. Kolmogorov.

In this presentation some unusual incidents about the legendary Kolmogorov and people around him are presented. Some stories were taken from the books and the internet, dedicated to the memory of Kolmogorov; some were told by his students, and some happened with the author of this presentation.

Some parts of this presentation were presented in USA (at the George Washington University), in China (at Chengdu University), in Portugal (at Lisbon University) and in Hong-Kong (at the City University of Hong-Kong).
